

Trainer's EDGE Course

Saturday, January 18, 2014
STX Council Service Center

The training program on effective instructional skills for ALL adult leaders will be held on Saturday, January 18, 2014 at the Council Office. Registration starts at 8:30 a.m. with the course concluding at 5:00 p.m.

This course is strongly recommended for all District Training Chairpersons and their training teams; all Scouters involved in council training courses; and all Scouters interested in being on a training team. This also includes adults and/or youth who would like to be part of Wood Badge staff or NYLT (National Youth Leadership Training) staff.

Course content includes why and who we train, training methods, morale features, the training team, reflections, effective teaching, and use of audio visual aids. Participants are required to prepare and bring a 10 to 12 minute presentation on any aspect of Scouting. You must have all of your visual aids and other presentation materials completed prior to arriving for the course. Participants will be giving their presentations during the course.

For additional information contact James Bangert, Trainer's EDGE Course Director, at 361-774-8146 or email at jmbangert@sbcglobal.net.

The registration fee is $15 and includes lots of handout materials, coffee and snacks. Lunch will be provided. Reservations must be in by 5 p.m., Wednesday, January 15th so we can plan for necessary materials accordingly.

REFUNDS will be granted according to the Council Refund Policy posted on our website at www.southtexasbsa.org
